

6516209169.txt

Nobody should be able to control what I hear on my radio when I pay for it out of my own pocket. It is pathetic that the NAB has nothing better to do and wants to mess with something as successful as XM. I really hope that the FCC can see that this is what people CHOOSE BY THEIR OWN WILL to purchase and listen to, and that no one else should interfere with that decision. Please leave XM a product for the people.